

Voices of Latino Caregivers

Join us for a two-part conversation among a group of Latino caregivers as they discuss the challenges they face caring for a person living with dementia

Conversation Jointly Sponsored by:

Emory Roybal Center for Dementia Family Caregiving
University of Rochester Roybal Center for Social Ties and Aging Research

The conversation will be moderated by Dr. Maria Quiñones-Cordero, Hispanic/Latino Core Lead, Roybal Center for Social Ties and Aging Research, University of Rochester

See Website

Monday, October 24th 3:00p-4:30p Eastern	Problem Identification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mapping the end-user's understanding of the problem territory &amp; finding agreement about key problems</li> </ul>
Monday, October 31st 3:00p-4:30p Eastern	Design Intervention Solution	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identifying possible solutions &amp; brainstorming fruitful directions for intervention research</li> </ul>

Dr. Leila Aflatoony, Assistant Professor in the College of Design at Georgia Tech will introduce Principles of Design Thinking during the first webinar

These Webinars are especially intended for investigators considering submitting a letter of intent proposing Emory Roybal Center pilot projects but are open to all who are interested in learning more about Design Thinking.

See Website

To Register for the webinar, click here